

AUSTRALIA AND ASIA

The opportunities are endless

Marsden International is the leading international recruitment firm in Canada. We place lawyers from newly qualified through partner level, who are interested in pursuing an international career.

With offices in Toronto, London, New York, Melbourne, Sydney and Johannesburg, we are best placed to advise you on the current opportunities available and promote your interests overseas.

If you are looking to further your career in a strong, stable and emerging market, then you should consider Asia or Australia as your next stop.

ASIA

Home to some of the world's most thriving financial and commercial centres, Hong Kong, Beijing, Shanghai, Singapore, Tokyo and Bangkok not only boast a vibrance and energy akin to London and New York, but are also amongst some of the most exciting places to live.

All the major firms from the UK and US are represented in Asia and the leading Magic Circle, International and US firms are actively looking to recruit talented, Canadian lawyers to their practices.

Our Australian consultants have in-depth knowledge of both the Australian and Asian markets and are able to provide you with the most informed and up-to-date advice available.

If you are considering a move in the coming year or would like the opportunity to discuss international opportunities in Australia or Asia, please call Fiona McKell for an informal and confidential discussion.

AUSTRALIA

While the Australian lifestyle and stunning climate are arguably the finest in the world, Australia is also home to a first class legal industry. Working in an Australian law firm will not only provide an exceptional lifestyle and career opportunity, but with the skills and training you receive, it will make you extremely marketable in the legal market of your choice.

The national top tier firms are actively seeking high performing lawyers with 1 to 6 years post call experience.
